PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Arriving to Schwechat Airport (Vienna,

<http://www.viennaairport.com/jart/prj3/via/website.jart?rel=en&content-id=1129903097097&reserve-mode=active>), the cheapest way is to buy a Zone 8 ticket (in German: Streifenkarte 8) at the Airport (Vienna Flughafen) S-Bahn station at price of 13.60 euro. You validate the ticket at your departure, take S-Bahn S8 to Rennweg, where you change to S-Bahn S9, which takes you to Südbahnhof. From Südbahnhof you have direct trains to Sopron (every hours in daytime; the train timetable see at TRAINS).

Arriving to Ferihegy Airport (Budapest, <http://www.bud.hu/english/transport>), there is a train connection from Terminal 1 to Budapest Nyugati. The trains to Sopron leave from Budapest Keleti! From Keleti railway station direct direct IC trains depart to Sopron at 6:10, 10:10, 14:10, 16:10 and 19:10. Attention: Sopron is the destination only of the first section of the trains! Travel time is about two and a half hours.

Arriving to Bratislava Airport (<http://www.airportbratislava.sk/51/32.html>), you can travel from the Main Railway Station to Sopron by train either via Vienna or Győr, and in any case you should change train there.

Bank (BANK)

In Sopron there are about twenty ATM-s ("bankomats"). Money can be changed in Tourist- and Change offices (in Hungarian: PÉNZVÁLTÓ), and also in banks.

Internet

During the congress there will be a free wireless internet service in and around the Liszt Ferenc Congress Centre. Internet access will be provided in one of the secondary schools, in the direct neighbourhood of the Congress Centre.

In Sopron, there are a few web-cafés, where you can use internet. One of them is Internet Kávézó (Sopron, Balfi u. 1-3., open Mon-Fri: 7:31:21:30, Sat: 9:00:21:30)

Local transport (HELYI KÖZLEKEDÉS)

Due to the generosity of the local transport company (Kisalföld Volán), the participants and accompanying persons, who registered for the whole week and wear their badge, can use the local transport (i.e. buses) free of charge between August 23-30, 2009, within the administration borders of Sopron (Brennbergbánya, Balf, Tómalom: included, Fertőrákos, Harka, Kópháza: not included). Bus lines, connecting the downtown and the Lövér resort area (No-s 1, 2 and 15) are especially useful for the IAGA participants. The timetable in English is available on our website.

Shopping (VÁSÁRLÁS)

In downtown, most magazines are along the Várkerület (Grabenrunde, Burg Ring). The opening hours are usually 8:00-17:00. Most super- and hypermarkets are open from 7 a.m. to late evening. Among international hypermarkets, INTERSPAR and the Hungarian-owned CBA are not far from downtown (1 km W). In big shops you can pay by major cards, too, but in smaller ones you are expected to pay in Hungarian Forint (HUF). By law, the price should be displayed in HUF, and includes VAT.
